*All for-profit food vendors who exist solely to sell a consumable food product at the event are required to be a member of the Hospitality Association of Rome & Floyd County. Vendor fees are included in your membership; thus, participation in the Rome Art Market series is FREE. Contact Debbie Galloway at Debbie@RomeGeorgia.org for more information about HARFC.

Included with your participation is an approximate 8-foot x 6-foot booth space and two chairs; an 8-foot table will be provided on a first-come, first-serve basis. All applicants new and returning are asked to provide four HIGH-RESOLUTION DIGITAL images representative of their work and of their logo (if applicable). These materials will be used in the marketing of the event through various channels. Please also provide a photo of your booth presentation at comparable events.

Vendors are asked to donate an item/food voucher for free drawings that will be held throughout the weekend. Vendors who donate are promised a recognition photo on our Facebook page the day of the giveaway to show our appreciation and advertise your product. Item and value: _____

*Applications are due by Monday, September 1, 2014 at 5p. Following a juried panel meeting, applicants will be notified via telephone of selection. After September 1, there will be $25 convenience charge to food vendors, and applications will be due Friday, November 7, 2014 at 5p.

I, _____, do hereby release the Last Stop Gift Shop and Greater Rome Convention & Visitors Bureau from all liability incurred from the Winter Art Market. In addition, I agree to stay set-up at the Art Market until the official closing time each day, or agree to pay a fee of $50 to the Greater Rome Convention & Visitors Bureau for each day that I close early.
