

History of Rome Georgia

Horizontal

3. This cemetery is the final resting place for over 2,000 Romans since 1857.

4. The 100 block of Broad Street is named the _____ Block. Rome generated most of its wealth from this.

6. This was the side entrance to the famous Nev-in Opera House. This entrance remains today.

7. A native to Rome, Von _____ was a University of Georgia football player who died from his injuries received during a game in 1897. His death almost led to the abolition of football in the state.

9. The _____ was placed on the top of Rome's first water reservoir.

Vertical

1. The Oostanaula River and Etowah River converge to form the _____ River. These rivers also served as the inspiration of the iconic cartoon character Popeye, the Sailor Man.

2. The only First Lady of the United States to be buried in the State of Georgia.

4. The Andrew _____ Library is one of the 30 original libraries in Georgia.

5. The "_____ of Freedom" is a tribute to veterans located at the Historic Floyd County Courthouse.

9. The _____ cabin is a typical home built by pioneer families in Floyd County between 1830 and 1850.