Challenge

Answer

1	Start at Schroeder's New Deli, cross Fourth Avenue and find the tribute recognizing "The Woman Who Saved Football in Georgia." What is her full name?
2	The Masonic Temple was burned by Union soldiers by the orders of General Sherman during the Civil War. What group of men sent contributions for the rebuilding of the Lodge?
3	Cross Broad Street and cross Fourth Avenue (at Living and Giving). What organization is honored with a bronze plaque in this block? (Bonus point: What year was the organization established?)
4	Do a U-turn and cross Fourth Avenue again, continuing on Broad Street. Do you know where the Nevin Opera House was? (Hint: Opera Alley) What is the name on the top of the building? (Bonus point: What is the full name of the individual the building is named for?)
5	Continue on Broad Street. Find the plaza that depicts scenes of Rome depicted on a bas-relief and is named after a former Rome Commissioner. What is his full name? (Bonus point: what was his nickname?)
6	Cross Broad Street at Third Avenue. Rome's founders fell in love with the hills and rivers in Rome. Georgia Legislature made Rome an official city in what year? (Bonus point: How many men are attributed to the founding of Rome?) (+1 bonus point for each one you can name)
7	Cross Third Avenue and find the T. Fahy building. What year is noted on the building?
8	The 200 block of Broad Street is home to one of Rome's favorite bakeries. What is the name of the bakery?

Congratulations, you've completed the Georgia's Rome Scavenger Hunt! Come inside for a surprise!
